Oddities and Curiosities Expo (April 6 and 7)

<https://www.showpass.com/st-louis-oddities-curiousities-expo-2025/>

From funeral collectibles to quack medicine and odd jewelry to preserved specimens, the Oddities & Curiosities Expo is your destination for all things peculiar. Everything at the show is sustainably sourced and legal to own, and alongside carefully curated vendors, dealers, small businesses and artists, sideshow performers will entertain attendees throughout the day.

Live at the Pulitzer: People and Place (April 9)

<https://pulitzerarts.org/events/slo-20th-people-and-place/>

As part of the 20th anniversary of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra: Live at the Pulitzer series, People and Place celebrates dynamic musical practices from the Americas. Pulitzer Prize winner Raven Chacon tells a future creation story in The Journey of the Horizontal People, while Clarice Assad introduces us to the vibrant folk melodies and dances of South America in Canções da America. Argentine composer Osvaldo Golijov conjures the sounds of Brazil in memory of a close friend in Mariel, and Molly Herron ponders the evolution of the sarabande and its roots in the new world in Three Sarabandes.

The Cher Show @ The Fox Theater (April 10 and 11)

For six straight decades, only one unstoppable force has flat-out dominated popular culture – breaking down barriers, pushing boundaries and letting nothing and no one stand in her way. The Cher Show is the Tony Award-winning musical of her story, and it's packed with so much Cher that it takes three women to play her: the kid in the beginning, the glam pop star and the icon. The Cher Show features 35 smash hits, six decades of stardom, two rock-star husbands, a Grammy, an Oscar, an Emmy and enough Tony Award-winning Bob Mackie gowns to cause a sequin shortage in New York

City. See the unabashedly fabulous new musical – which, we must warn you, incites dancing in the aisles – at Stifel Theatre on April 10 and 11.

Friday Night Irish Sessions @ The Pat Connolly Tavern (April 11)
